Friends of Seedtime,

	Population	Covid Cases	Deaths
Haiti	11.2 million	1,443	35
Dominican Rep	10.7 million	16,068	485

These two countries share the same island in the Caribbean.

Our friend, Frantz Pierre Louis is doing okay with his wife and young daughter in Port-de-Paix, Haiti. He says the government is requiring 14 day quarantine of people traveling into Haiti. American Airlines does not show flights into Haiti until July 6th.

Also, Frantz says there is no shortage of churches requesting us to come teach. We will have plenty of work to do when the door to Haiti finally opens up.

In the mean time, we will let it be known...

that a request has been made for one-time financial support of a soccer league in Ti Goave, Haiti. For those who know us at Seedtime, we very rarely consider fundraising for much of anything except the work of teaching God's Word. Nevertheless, we also know that kindness and generosity comes in a variety of places.

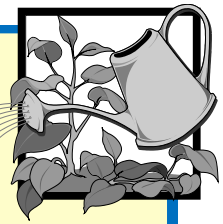

The league was popular in Ti Goave even though boys were required to be in school to participate. Achnel Elveus, its director, said 80 boys in the area came back to school just so they could be on a team. He wants to maintain the popularity with a few nice banners for next year's signup. We would have the banners printed stateside and deliver them to Achnel on our next trip into Haiti if all goes well.

From one of their games in February I took these photos:

The parade of school boys and girls went down main street including the local musicians. 20 minutes later the two teams faced off on the local soccer field. It was a very pleasant community event. A "pleasant community event" is hard to find in Haiti.

If you want to assist in this community youth activity that brings boys back to school, just send a note along with your support so we know. We will also consider a small love offering to Achnel so long as there is enough raised for the advertising.

So Heavenly minded, they are no earthly good.

We have heard the accusation before. We have at times, been on both sides of the issue...

Spiritual teaching or practical help?

Well, today you have an option to do some simple, solid community work in Haiti through Seedtime.

We know the director and vouch for him. We have attended their games and seen it firsthand.

It is kindness and generosity either way.
