Friends of Seedtime,

Big Favor Request

Would you give me 20 minutes of your time?

I have a 20 minute presentation of our work in Haiti from a recent Sunday church service in Lyndon, Kansas.

It is not polished. It is not loud. You will need to turn up the volume to hear well. It is not many of the things that people look for in a youtube video. Still, we would very much like you to hear our message.

Brian speaks from about minute 19 through 39. Twenty minutes will tell you a lot about what we teach, how we teach and how you fit into this. Spoiler alert: It is NOT about sending money.

We are quite informal, low key and we like to talk with people and not at people. We have bad days in teaching that look nothing like what we hoped and prayed for. But we will engage, pointing people to the Bible for a new day and a new start.

And if you have read our ministry updates over the years, you know God has stepped in so often, bringing awesome teaching times with so many in Haiti... we could not help but to keep telling you... wish you had been there!

Remember what Paul says to those who had heard him speak.

Romans 15:14 I myself am convinced, my brothers and sisters, that you yourselves are full of goodness, filled with knowledge and competent to instruct one another.

Consider that many in Paul's crowds probably felt unprepared, just as many of us feel today. If you do feel prepared then possibly your arrogance precedes you already and destroys the message.

May we humbly suggest that you consider presenting yourself for service to God, leaving room for the Holy Spirit to do his work with you.

Enjoy a different kind of ministry!

Your financial support is appreciated

Haiti has approximately 11.4 million people.

Haiti before Covid was a mess.

With Covid and the subsequent travel policies, getting there to teach is even more challenging.

But how many Christians are already in Haiti?

Will they consider themselves teachers?

Please pray for Frantz and a whole
lotta others who can do the work.
