The only people dissatisfied are the ones who did not come.

Frantz and I had just finished our 15 hour Bible seminar and reminded everyone that they could have a refund of their $2.50 class fee if they were dissatisfied in any way. Sernelus John Baptiste or Brother Eugene as he preferred, gave the reply above. And as usual, no one wanted a refund. They just asked when we would be back for more.

We did not feed the people. We did provide water once, on one day out of five. We sponsored no one. We just went through verse after verse and helped them see practical application of God's Word especially on days outside of Sunday.

In addition to this group, Frantz and I spent time with perhaps a dozen other groups conducting introductory lessons for people to get to know what our seminar is about. Those introductions lasted on average 2 hours. Frantz and I now have enough interested parties to keep us busy for quite a while. We will need to try combining these groups to have a chance at meeting the requests.

Not everyone we met enjoyed our introductory message. In all fairness, we did entertain 3 people who did not listen to us but rather boldly told us, almost immediately, how they were most capable of evangelizing Haiti if we would just sponsor them. We chose not to accept their offer. Praise the Lord, sometimes we can tell the difference between those who like the message we bring versus those who like the messenger and the money they hope he can bring.

In this paragraph we need to simply repeat ourselves, saying "Wish you were here". Something in our Bible study just resonates with the Haitian church. You should see it for yourselves someday. Nearly everywhere we go, despite less than spectacular presentation skills, Frantz and Brian get amazing responses to what amounts to a longwinded Bible study. Just two of more than 400 verses we read and discuss are below.

Deut 15:4-5 says "There should be no poor among you, for the LORD your God will greatly bless you in the land he is giving you as a special possession. ⁵ You will receive this blessing if you are careful to obey all the commands of the LORD your God that I am giving you today.

Seems God said there is no poverty problem. But perhaps we have an obedience problem... if we're reading this correctly.

YOU
things?

The two children in the photos were sitting under a broken down truck next to the Guesthouse in Mare Rouge, Haiti where Brian and Frantz stayed in December 2020. The kids, in their school uniforms, were enjoying a frozen treat called Ti Karol . We don't know their names. Just thought it was a cute moment to capture.

Near the end of our Bible seminar we ask our students if their parents ever taught them the things we explored in our Bible study. We has just read the verses below.

Dt 6:6-7 These commandments that I give you today are to be upon your hearts. ⁷Impress them on your children. Talk about them when you sit at home and when you walk along the road, when you lie down and when you get up.

Pr 22:6 Train a child in the way he should go, and when he is old he will not turn from it.

Eph 6:4 Fathers, do not exasperate your children; instead, bring them up in the training and instruction of the Lord.

Never does anyone say yes. They say they never had anyone teach them what we teach, although it is all in their Bible. And they absolutely say they wish they had been taught years before. Will they teach others as they wish others had taught them? Of course, they say, yes.
