Friends of Seedtime,

Wish I Was There

For years I have written to my Seedtime friends about how wonderful it is to be in Haiti teaching Bible studies. "Wish you were here", was my common phrase. Now, Frantz has the privilege of saying that to you, and me!

After many frustrating scheduling failures, Frantz conducted three days of bible study from May 17th through May 19th. He said the class went very well, participation was strong with the students showing themselves to be thirsty for God's counsel.

New Jerusalem Baptist Church in Port-de-Paix is where Frantz taught. 12 students started and 10 stayed all three days. Students were charged about $2.30 for their book and class. The fee was fully refundable yet no one was interested in the refund offered.

Frantz said the usual comments were made by students about their whole church needing to hear our study. And two ladies jokingly fought over the right to chose the "Honesty" chapter as their personal favorite subject. Another said she really wanted to have her husband attend our study along with her.

Every once in awhile, God allows us a moment to share that makes the troubles worthwhile. These were a few of those days. Enjoy the moment!

Thank you for remembering our discipleship efforts.

Blessings to you!

Elsewhere in Haiti... Along with the class report Frantz sent photos of 4 recent attacks on buses that crisscross Haiti. Here is one photo of the busline I used on my most recent trip to Haiti. Additionally, the country of Colombia is now advising Haiti on how to address their kidnapping issues.

What you heard from me, keep as the pattern of sound teaching, with faith and love in Christ Jesus.
¹⁴Guard the good deposit that was entrusted to you —guard it with the help of the Holy Spirit who lives in us.

It is indeed just a deposit, a few hours that Frantz said passed by very quickly. We pray they guard the good word we gave them.

Your prayers are appreciated.
