A Day of Small Beginnings

Frantz found a little inspiration on his travels across Haiti recently. He was visiting this church about 30 minutes from Port-de-Paix to introduce them to the Seedtime Discipleship study. The Haitian government had torn down the church building (without compensation) to make way for a road. Frantz said he was very impressed by the resiliency of the members as they organized to rebuild it just up the hill.

Frantz goes to encourage and teach many churches but this day Frantz cared much less about his words and just kept saying how much he enjoyed the spirit he felt with this church. He didn't dress for a work day but he said he couldn't resist jumping in.

In such moments some think about "unity" or "action" but we thought about this verse from Zechariah because it seems we are knocked down so often that we are just trying to get back up and begin again, one small step after another.

Zechariah 4:10 (ESV) For whoever has despised the day of small things shall rejoice, and shall see the plumb line in the hand of Zerubbabel.

We are very happy Frantz found this refreshment of spirit within his own people. We love to see what God will do and how he will do it. All too often we use money as a means of encouragement and that method is way too narrow for God. Frantz' story was an encouragement for us and we wanted to share it with you. May it humble us and inspire us to keep rejoicing even in the first steps we take on a new day.

Recently Frantz has sent us the names of many pastors and church leaders that have shown interest in our Discipleship Bible study. He works hard to meet and introduce himself everywhere he can. We thought you also might like to see the typical advertising he places around to supplement the church's effort to rally the members. And no, if you were expecting social media driven communications you would be wrong.

"WHILE THE EARTH REMAINS, SEEDTIME AND HARVEST, COLD AND HEAT, WINTER AND SUMMER, AND DAY AND NIGHT SHALL NOT CEASE." GENESIS 8:22

A small but blessed beginning

Frantz gets 12 little minutes as a guest on a Christian radio program in Haiti.

Finally, on Feb 18th Frantz spoke about Seedtime's discipleship teachings on-air with 90.3 FM Radio Manacee in Port-de-Paix. He said they showed a lot of interest both on and off mike.

Frantz brought along Seedtime's Bible study notebook to keep the focus where it belongs and he hopes to someday earn a spot on their weekly programming schedule.

Frantz is great at visiting churches in many areas around Port-de-Paix. He currently has over 20 pastors he is speaking with and he smiled big when he said he hopes to call us soon needing more books.

Challenges along the way

Frantz' wife, Elisiane, had a moped run over her left foot awhile back and it has a fracture that still causes her pain. Haiti is a manual lifestyle for sure with very few conveniences. Nothing comes easy in Haiti so please pray for her.

Also, Frantz and Elisiane have been living at her mother's house for a couple years and recently tried to buy a small piece of land to build a house for themselves. The landowner took their 1250.00 USD but then sold the land to another person. Frantz is trying to get the money back but the courts are notoriously corrupt and this could take some time. A judge involved in Frantz' case was recently dismissed for corruption and they are waiting to see who will replace him. Pray please.
