Friends of Seedtime,

QUALITY... DEPENDS ON WHAT YOU'RE LOOKING FOR

July brought Frantz to a church in Latendrie, Haiti where 5 students attended. One student was not too committed, moving in and out of class. The other 4 were quality students praised by Frantz. And we noted how upscale (for Haiti) the church was yet how empty it was. Seems the 5th student didn't find the quality of the room sufficient to keep him interested. (photo left)

Aug 5th began a new group of students for Frantz at Sinai Baptist Church where 16 students began and 19 finished.

Frantz was very impressed with the Sinai church group, saying they were awesome. And yes, we did note the bare bones church and furnishings that are far more common in the parts of Haiti we travel. (bottom 2 photos) The extra 3 students who came after day 1 did not seem deterred by the poor quality of the room but probably enjoyed something else they found. We wonder what that might be??

James 2:5

Listen, my beloved brothers, has not God chosen those who are poor in the world to be rich in faith and heirs of the kingdom, which he has promised to those who love him?

Surely the 4 students in Latendrie were spirit filled and thirsty to be disciplined. But why so few? What is it about physical blessings that make fewer and fewer people desiring God?

Proverbs 30:8b-9a

... give me neither poverty nor riches, but give me only my daily bread. ⁹ Otherwise, I may have too much and disown you and say, 'Who is the LORD?' ...

Thank you for helping us provide these "quality" discipleship days.

Blessings to you all!

Shipping our supplies

Because Haitian Customs officers keep finding guns and ammunition onboard supply ships arriving in Port-de-Paix, the government says they are requiring all shipments to come through the capital, Port-au-Prince. The problem is that Frantz can not safely travel the roads to the capital to retrieve supplies.

This is not implemented yet by the government and people are protesting the decision as usual.

GOD CAN HANDLE THIS TOO BUT WE'D BE HAPPY IF YOU PRAYED ABOUT IT.
