Friends of Seedtime,

ONE POSITIVE NOTE AFTER ANOTHER THANKS FOR THE PRAYERS

Seedtime classes are underway for Haiti's Emmanuel Baptist church in Latendri. That 3 day class should finish today, July 30th.

The Pastor of that church also has a radio program and invited Frantz to do a 20 minute on-air intro on the Monday prior to classes beginning. Bonus!

Mid-year giving letters went out last week to everyone who has given financially to Seedtime from January 1 until June 30th, 2022.

If you gave in 2022 but did not receive your information from us, then contact us please.

Thank you for the prayers.

Frantz received the supplies we shipped earlier this month. It took about 6 days longer since customs officials found guns and ammunition onboard the boat. Frantz said our boxes had been opened when he got them but nothing was taken!

Brian is getting to preach once a month at a small church near Derby, Kansas. Our Seedtime Bible study at the Senior center continues each Monday. And, conversations with English students around the world have produced some excellent Bible studies this year!!

A friend of Seedtime, Gertha Elveus, is a very active Christian lady in southern Haiti. Last year she conducted a revival in her town and she is repeating it Aug 23rd-25th.

I asked Frantz if he was interested in attending and he said there is no safe way to get there. The gangs are based out of a police station on the route to the revival area. Travel to this area is very unsafe.

If you are interested in helping Gertha with this year's revival you may note that on your financial support and we will forward it to her. Of course we're asking you to pray.

Like Frantz, she does all she can to help people see Jesus.

Thank you for allowing us to provide more discipleship. The people are looking for answers, so now is a very good time.

Blessings to you all!

Is this what you do with eternity? Good Question!

In the 1993 movie Groundhog Day, the leading lady asked the leading man, "Is this what you do with eternity?"

They were playing a card game, killing time. The leading man showed a good bit of skill indicating he had killed a lot of time practicing card tricks.

Sometimes, we personally keep very busy serving the Lord. Too often, we are just "busy" playing mindless games.

Let's help one another to tighten this up.

Challenge God's children, both brothers and sisters in Christ, as seen in Pro 27:17.
