Friends of Seedtime,

Hey, when can you come back?

Perhaps you've heard that 80% of mothers who see their unborn child on a sonogram decide not to have an abortion. They choose life. This information is important to know by those who are asked to support Pro-life services.

Likewise, check out this stat from the Bible study we conducted last month in the Baptist Nazarene church in Port-de-Paix, Haiti. It's typical of what we find in every church.

Out of 33 registration forms submitted by our students last month, only 2 had read the whole Bible. That's 6.06% Keep in mind that we are asking adults, who go to church regularly, who consider themselves Christians.

That's 94% who didn't read their Bible seriously.

Oops! Is it any wonder that Haiti is blown away when we share from scripture?

Our students have wonderful comments about what we teach. We teach simple truths from the Bible. It leaves them hungry for what else they've been missing.

E. Dorcius: I'll create time to read and apply this teaching.

C. Pierre: It motivates us Christians not to stay in prayer but to also work at application too.

K. Paul: I'll start teaching the youth AND the Sunday school teachers.

And there is more...

Of 33 comment forms, we found 3 churches represented, 6 students were teachers in their church, 7 were teachers in schools in Haiti.

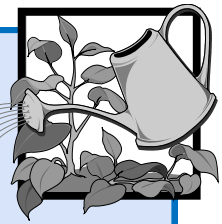

That's 33 happy students excited to apply, multiply or both.

How do we know they were happy? Comment forms told us and the fact that unhappy students get all their class fee back... and not one person wanted their fee.

Frantz noted on day 1 that one person commented about getting their fee back at the end of class. When Frantz reminded them on day 3, no one cared. As usual, the comments had turned to "Hey, when can you come back?"

Thank you for walking with Seedtime and Harvest!

As the Lord leads

We ask you to consider Seedtime for a generous donation. But not for any reason except the prompting of the Spirit.

Coercion is not our job or intention.

We want those who have their hearts with us as they write their donation check.

We see people learning and excited by the Bible. We are called to this.

Will God provide through you?

Thanks for giving, and for praying!
