Friends of Seedtime, It's Not Unusual

Frantz regularly meets with leaders of Haiti's churches.

It doesn't take long before Frantz says something from the Bible that makes the leaders step back and reject Frantz. That part is usual too.

Once Frantz waits, while they check their own Bible, he finds they have changed their tune.

Frantz shows them his own personal Bible reading calendar and invites them to read daily also.

May I have a Bible reading calendar? Sure!
Can I have 20 calendars? Sure!
They're for my members. Sure!

This conversation happened again to Frantz just a week or two ago... and a couple weeks prior to that as well.

Haiti, like each of us, has failed to remember all God has told us. But when reminded of the Truth we are blessed to see some folks respond well.

Have you noticed the harsh reality of what it takes to motivate humanity to respond, to seek God, more thoroughly.

Psalm 78:33-35

So he made their days vanish like a breath, and their years in terror.

³⁴ When he killed them, they sought him; they repented and sought God earnestly.

³⁵ They remembered that God was their rock, the Most High God their redeemer.

Psalm 119:71

It's good for me that I was afflicted that I might learn your statutes.

Seek the Lord in good times, e/se seek him in bad times. It's our choice, whether we're Haitian or American.

Now, we invite you to help us be prepared to teach, when people are motivated to seek the Lord.

Thank you for thinking of Seedtime in your prayer time and in financial support.
