Friends of Seedtime,

Israel, Not America, Saw Quail dropping miraculously from the sky.

But God Provided for Both.

Last week, on Thanksgiving day, Frantz was on-air at Manacee FM Radio in Port-de-Paix, Haiti. The topic Frantz brought captivated the audience. Haitians apparently have been told that America celebrates Thanksgiving because during the colonial days God had mercy on the people by raining down turkeys from the sky miraculously.

Callers to the radio station explained what Frantz already knew. He was taught the same story when he was young. But Frantz set the record straight. Turkeys were a part of the story but not because they were dropping in freely. Pilgrims worked for their prize catch.

The account of God freely dropping quail near Israel's camp from Numbers chapter 11 must have led to this story. And you can not fault Haiti for being misled on the historical events of another country.

While it is humorous, even moreso, it is a pleasure to hear that Haiti knows the Biblical story of God's provision.

AND

They are unopposed to the idea that God still provides.

Haiti's idea of God's provision to American colonists is a bit exaggerated.

BUT

How many people, of any nationality, have no room in their mind to acknowledge God as provider today?

Every good gift comes from above. (James 1:17)

----- application -----

How are we Americans doing with seeing God as provider?

- Provider in Bible times? Yes
- Celebrate his provision in Colonial days? Yes
- How about today **???

AS GOD PROVIDES
WE SIMPLY ASK OURSELVES..

“DO I WANT TO JOIN IN WITH WHAT THE FATHER IS DOING?”

JESUS TOLD US HIS ANSWER.

“Very truly I tell you,
the Son can do nothing by himself;
he can do only
what he sees his Father doing,
because whatever the Father does the Son also does.

John 5:19
