Seems God has gifted Frantz to the folks in Haiti, offering light in the darkness.

- Haiti's President assassinated July 2021.
- The Prime Minister took control but never conducted elections and finally agreed to step down March 2024 as gang violence increased.
- 2016 was Haiti's last election. No elected officials remain in office today.
- Caribbean nation leaders chose a group of Haitians to form a council to stabilize the country and conduct elections.

Background checks are supposedly being conducted on the council members. Plus people are waiting to see if the council will be accepted by the Haitian people and the unknown powers that be.

Ephesians 5:13-14

But everything exposed by the light becomes visible—and everything that is illuminated becomes a light. <sup>14</sup> This is why it is said:

“Wake up, sleeper,
rise from the dead,
and Christ will shine on you.”

Frantz has the light of Christ beaming into his city of Port-de-Paix, Haiti. He has FM radio broadcasts multiple times per week and multiple meetings with Pastors and churches to present Bible teaching.

Please pray about being a part of this ministry!

A BEAUTIFUL MOMENT

We know how well the dark side of life challenges humanity each day. It's nice to see something on the bright side once in a while. At a time when Frantz' wife, Elisiane, was having allergic reactions, pain, rash, and difficulty swallowing, their church members came to visit.

Not the normal American response of a brief visit, by a couple from the church, bringing food, hugs and a short prayer, no, the church brought 27 members and stayed for 2 hours praying. I didn't ask but I bet Elisiane was not isolated in a back bedroom sleeping, but most likely in the middle of the room being prayed over. (I did ask, and yes, she was in the center room with hands laid on her.)

Frantz called this a beautiful moment. Americans would likely have screamed either outwardly or inside their spirits... two hours with so many people and so little privacy or rest? Yep, welcome to a beautiful moment. We greatly appreciate their heart for God.

Frantz has since taken her to a doctor and had blood tests done. Results are still pending. For now Elisiane is feeling better.

“WHILE THE EARTH REMAINS, SEEDTIME AND HARVEST, COLD AND HEAT, WINTER AND SUMMER, AND DAY AND NIGHT SHALL NOT CEASE.” GENESIS 8:22

It did our heart good to see Elisiane smile a little. These past months have brought Frantz' wife a lot of trouble with allergies, pain, rashes and breathing. Medication, when it can be obtained has been a band-aid but no long term answer has been found.

Gaelle, and young Jade

She supports Frantz and the family faithfully when she is well.

Frantz has a genuine love for Jesus and it undoubtedly is his strength when the family is sick, when he is sick, when Haitian Pastors mistreat him, when water can not be found, when gangs and corruption undermine his country.

In all this he does a great job.

God will provide their needs. The Bible makes that clear.

Will you join God in providing or will God provide through someone else?

Anyone may give. Even the impoverished Macedonians (2 Corinthians 8) gave and found joy in doing so.

If this is the joy of your heart, to support Frantz and his family as he disciples Haiti, please do so through Seedtime.

Thanks for walking with us!
