Friends of Seedtime,

Prison didn't slow down Apostle Paul's Message

It just added power to the message from a very unexpected place, and with wholehearted commitment.

Frantz is not in prison, but he is in Haiti and the Caribbean has been absolutely drenched with rain. Most things in Haiti shut down in rain and now it's been raining many days.

The Gospel is not going out as usual, through the many radio stations and live Bible studies, but God, just as seen in 2 Corinthians 7:9, is helping us, preparing trainable hearts and minds of many who will emerge from their soaked houses and hear Frantz begin again. (Photo of Frantz at RTG FM before the rains got too big.)

1. Pray for Frantz, Haiti and those in the path of the storm.

2. Then we ask ...will you be with us and Frantz when the rain lets up?

Surely, we are NOT a ministry just wanting to save the flesh from floods. No, we look towards that often unpopular topic... the eternal gospel, for the saving of souls for all time.

Soon, some of Seedtime's friends will bemoan the fact that Jesus is the single unwelcomed topic at the family dinner this Thanksgiving and Christmas. Jesus is what is missing and our own spirit confirms that. Your local outreach to family during these times should match your global outreach. And Haiti is our global outreach.

Frantz lives for these opportunities. His readiness to teach and befriend, plus your support make discipleship happen.

RESIST the urge to buy things that are "On Sale" this season but you don't need. Resist that urge and choose wisely what will truly bless others.

Seedtime is organized to keep the Gospel in front of God's children in Haiti. Will you send help?

Seedtime has no major donors nor do we sell calendars or T-shirts to raise funds. Why sell you a coffee mug when you could directly choose to sustain a loving Bible teacher in Haiti?

Thanks for walking with Seedtime

Frantz' wife and children make a beautiful family, but what we like most is the inside of this Godly man. Please pray about helping.

Prayer requests

1. Safety for the people—both weather and gang related.
2. Radio stations to come back on-air.
3. Bible study events to reschedule.
4. Supplies sent in March to finally arrive.
5. Radio ad production - 3 new ads are delayed by loss of power.

We always think we know what to pray for, but remember this key verse...
