Friends of Seedtime,

Radio Discipleship Moving Forward

90 second discipleship moments are on-air in Haiti.

RTG FM is currently airing script #6 across Port-de-Paix (PdP), Haiti, having aired scripts #1 thru 5 already.

Bethany FM is a bigger radio station, also in PdP, and they are to begin airing scripts #1 thru 3 next week.

Frantz is reviewing scripts #7 thru 9 prior to production.

We simply refer to these as Radio Ads, since we pay for them to air alongside the more typical advertisers like grocery stores and event organizers.

But our ads are strickly promoting a mature understanding of scripture. We do this with conversations between two characters, Tonton Celibon, the wise older man and Ms Margo the archetype Christian, sometimes growing and sometimes confused or questioning.

Frantz voices the Tonton Celibon character and long time Christian friend, Ms Margo voices the Ms Margo character.

Tonton means "uncle", commonly thought of very favorably in Haitian culture. But "Celibon" has a much less clear meaning. The base meaning of "Celibon" is very positive suggesting "It is good" or "he is good" while others think of "Celibon" as a scary boogey man.

Maturing the Christians in Haiti is our goal and using the name "Celibon" will intentionally serve to restore the word "good" to mean "good".

90 seconds at a time, repeated up to 7 times a day, day after day, we'll return what is upside down, to its proper place. Some RTG listeners already memorized them.

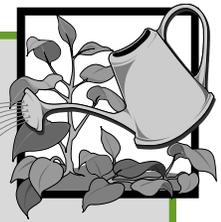

- Free Church of the Living God is the Kansas church that called us into this project.
- RTG FM has been enthusiastic to promote these ads.
 - Bethany FM is jumping on board.
 - Frantz and Ms Margo are preparing the next 3 ads.
- We request your participation as prayer, guiding our scripts, production, and ability to pay the radio ad fees.

Plus, Frantz is still teaching on-air with these two FM stations and several other FM stations for 20-60 minutes at a time.

So, yes, radio discipleship is growing in Haiti!

Thanks for walking with Seedtime

Frantz recently led these 5 through select Bible verses applicable to their lives today.

It's not all about radio.

Finally, face-to-face class Happened!!

We'll tell you more in our next Seedtime Ministry Update.
