Friends of Seedtime, Motivation

to pray, read, get to work, and say Thanks.

Carnival, the Voodoo-oriented festival that Haiti calls Kanaval, runs Feb 15th-17th this year. It is countered by the evangelical churches in Haiti who hold their own church programs. This affects Seedtime each year as churches ask Frantz to conduct his 3 day Bible study with them. So, God is once again offering something good, that is motivated by the evil rising up. I don't think there would be the same interest in our study otherwise. Nevertheless, pray that Frantz actually gets to fulfill the request. He is scheduled to teach the Bible Feb 16-18 at New Jerusalem Tabernacle Church in Port-de-Paix, Haiti.

February 7th 2026 The Transitional Presidential Council comes to an end. This is the temporary council formed over a year ago to be the official "President" of Haiti tasked with two major objectives: 1. Reduce gang activity and 2. Organize elections, replacing themselves with a newly elected President. None of that was accomplished. The UN stepped in with a gang suppression force last fall that has not yet had its desired effect. Gangs have taken some hits, but they still rule the country on the ground.

Feed My Sheep FM 93.5 is the latest Haitian radio station to host Frantz on-air for Bible teaching. We've lost count but maybe it's the 20th station to have Frantz come teach the Bible. He gets free reign to teach, just like the other stations allow, so we have no constraints for teaching the full council of God. This is truly an amazing gift from God.

Seedtime's discipleship radio ads are still on-air in Port-de-Paix with slow progress being made on production of ads 7,8 and 9. Weather and a host of other distractions are constant battles. God knows what he is doing. We just wake up looking to move forward until God says no.

And, of course Frantz continues being live on-air teaching the Bible several times a week on a few radio stations as they manage to keep their systems working.

*It is a hard time in Haiti,
but God is making it profitable for those who wish to tune in.*

Thanks for walking with Seedtime

Motivation in Your Life

If "Kanaval" drives the Haitian Christian church to open their Bible, is it possible that we do the same?

example

Is Sunday the day we read scripture?
Does that day push you to read?

suggestion

Make a move to fill more of your time with the Bible, without needing an outside event to push you.

You push you... because you've reasoned it through.

The Bible has great things to say,
to make us wise,
finding peace and rest,
in Jesus!
