Need a Do-over? A repeat of the last Newsletter?

Maybe you didn't get to look at the Jan/Feb 2026 Newsletter. Or maybe a lot has happened since then and you need a refresher. Let us help. We wouldn't normally do this but the content was more than worthwhile. We'd love for you to see a summary!

We've asked for prayer for Frantz. He has had such success in radio Bible teaching that we want to avoid issues associated with success. Apostle Paul spoke of "thorns in his side" (2 Corinthians 12:7) to keep him focused not on himself, but rightly focused on God. This sounds odd perhaps, but we have seen 20 or so FM radio stations and many churches call on him, recognizing the Spirit of God working in him. It is a great place to be but also a dangerous place where egos can grow.

Since our last Newsletter in February, Frantz has dealt with many "thorns". He was in a moped crash and sidelined with those injuries for a couple weeks. Then, even more recently he has had a bad rash on his body and vomiting and diarrhea. Plus both daughters have fought sickness, one rather serious. It is a hard life in Haiti where too much discouragement and too much praise can both be trouble. Prayers were requested before, and are requested again.

Lastly, in repeat mode, we wanted you to know the many ways Seedtime serves to disciple people in Haiti when the storms of life subside for a moment.

Mostly through Frantz, supported by his family and Seedtime Friends, from a very humble Haitian home that is actually his in-laws place...

- Teaching our 3 day in-person Bible study seminar.
- Reaching radio listeners with live Bible teaching on a variety of FM stations.
- Producing our radio discipleship ads.
- Distributing Bible Reading Calendars.
- And finally, Frantz is who pastors across the city call to fill their pulpit when the senior pastors need to step away.

Thank you for remembering Frantz and the rest of Seedtime as we pursue the good work of discipleship in Haiti.

Frantz and Elisiane

They enjoyed a rare dinner out in Port-de-Paix, Haiti during the holidays of 2025. We asked him to go again, this time taking paper and pencil along. At our request he is to invite Jerry M and his wife and record their testimony.

You see, Jerry M. came over to pray for Frantz after he'd heard of Frantz' moped crash. Frantz gets pretty excited describing the people who stop to pray for him in times like this.

And in addition to prayer Jerry also used the time to briefly say how Seedtime's Bible study had set him on a path to getting his life straightened out with his wife and with his finances.

It wasn't a long visit and Frantz was in no shape to be doing an interview and taking notes. No problem, I said. When everyone is well, set a time to visit over dinner and hear what they have to say. Take time to understand what was impactful. And enjoy the dinner. I guarantee you that this is a moment of grand luxury that Frantz' household seldom sees.

Thank you for walking with us!
