Friends of Seedtime, Wanna be a fly on the wall?

So how does a person handle adversity? Ever want to be a fly on the wall to see how someone responds to being kicked around?

Well, I can share briefly how Frantz handled a really rough couple of months.

I've previously mentioned his moped crash and multiple health issues with him and his daughters all at the same time. I'll spare you the details. What I can share is that he never stepped away from God.

Many times he rejoiced in the friends who came to pray for him and his family. Radio station co-workers and listeners also came to pray. He disappeared many times trying to keep up with sleep, child care and doctor appointments. We discussed prescription medications and expiration dates trying to sort out all the advice. But best of all was his prayer for God to intervene.

Before May 20th Frantz was on the radio only long enough to tell listeners why he was absent. Finally, May 20th they got the restored Frantz. He was excited and ready.

He taught on Psalm 107, 1 Thess 5:16-18, Phil 4:6-7 and Col 3:17. The theme of course, was Giving thanks to God in all circumstances.

Frantz was on 3 different radio stations on May 20th and they received him back gladly. One listener called in to sing "Bienvenu" to welcome him back. Frantz was delighted.

God had tested him and he came out as gold. And you and I were a fly on the wall to get a glimpse of this moment.

Now we can say thank you Seedtime Friends, as we know some of you took time to pray while others sent donations to see that his financial needs were met. Thank you all!!

Supplies delayed yet again

So many delays. So many different reasons. This time the Mayor of the city is looking to add a special fee to the cargo before allowing the boat to unload. Yes, the supplies are in the harbor of Port-de-Paix, ready to unload. We're so close. One more hurdle.

Thanks for walking with Seedtime!

Bethany FM remodeled while Frantz was gone. Not too bad!

Psalm 4:1
Answer me when I call to you, my righteous God. Give me relief from my distress; have mercy on me and hear my prayer.

Psalm 4:3
Know that the LORD has set apart his faithful servant for himself; the LORD hears when I call to him.

Seeking God aggressively when in need is not scorned.... it IS a part of what it means to be a faithful servant.
